The Kentucky Press.

That excellent journal, the Richmond Register, now comes to us as a semi-weekly. Here's hoping it will be as successful in the future as in the past.

Editor W. P. Walton, of the Stanford Journal, has been sued by Houston Ball, of Middlesboro, for $5,000 for alleged libel. The Journal reprinted an item about Ball.

SEE page three for account of the inauguration of President McKinley.

THE Missouri House passed a bill making railroad fares in the State two cents a mile.

It is reported that 2,000 Mussulmans were massacred recently near Seline, in Crete, and great apprehension is felt for 4,000 others who are besieged near Candia.

A PETITION has been cabled to President-elect McKinley from Berlin asking the retention of Mr. Edwin F. Uhl as United States Ambassador to Germany.

SECRETARY OLNEY has declined to submit the correspondence in the Ruiz case to the Senate, but has made a statement of the essential facts. The President indorses his action, pending an investigation, but remarks that the matter properly devolves on the coming Administration.

PRESIDENT-ELECT MCKINLEY and his party arrived in Washington shortly before noon Tuesday, all having stood the trip very well save Mrs. McKinley. They proceeded at once to the Ebbitt House, with Gov. Bushell's staff as a guard of honor, and during the afternoon Mr. McKinley received a few callers. At his special request there was no formal demonstration, and the afternoon was passed as quietly as possible. Tuesday night Mr. McKinley dined at the White House with President and Mrs. Cleveland. Mrs. McKinley was too much exhausted by the trip from Canton to be present.

THE Courier-Journal says: "The senatorial situation up to date is this: Gov. Bradley has been informed by Mr. Hanna that the latter has found upon reaching Washington, that the chances are against seating an appointee, and that the Republican Senate Steering Committee favors an immediate extra session of Legislature for the election of a Senator. On the other hand, Gov. Bradley has explained the chances against the election of a Republican Senator, but is said to be willing to let Mr. Hanna and the Steering Committee take the responsibility of finally deciding in favor of attempting an election."

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers of Stock, Crop, Etc.—Turf Notes.

"Soup" Perkins, of Lexington, will ride for Julius Bauer & Co., this season.

A turf correspondent writes as follows from Memphis concerning Paris flyers: "Thompson Tarr's string, which includes F. V. V., is also in winter quarters at Montgomery Park. F. V. V. is the biggest three-year-old here, and unless all signs fail he will give the best of them an argument in all the principal three-year-old stakes of the year."

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

HERMANN III.
The coming of Hermann III, Monday night to the Grand, is looked forward to with interest by the Paris admirers of the late Alexander Herrmann. The New York Journal says:

Herrmann III., heretofore known as Leon Aerrmann, a nephew of the late Alexander Herrmann, made his first appearance as the successor of the famous magician last night at the Metropolitan Opera House.

He performed many of the feats and illusions that gave Professor Herrmann the name "Wizard." He was well received, and Mme. Herrmann won a genuine ovation. Attired just as Herrmann was when he last stood before a file of riflemen, she deftly caught six bullets fired at her point blank. She also gave some beautiful dances.

Dolly Theobald has gone into vaudeville in New York.

Robt. Mantell will produce in Philadelphia this month a new play entitled "A Gentleman From Gascony."

Mr. Francis Wilson, in his new opera, "Half a King" is booked for the Cincinnati Grand the week of March 29. Mr. Wilson will have to play against the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Amateur theatricals are popular at Frankfort. The opera "Priscilla" will soon be given under the direction of Prof. Wayland Graham. A minstrel troupe is also being organized.

The "Mikado" is soon to be sung by Richmond amateurs. The cast will be: Mikado, Prof. Sanderson; Nankipoo, W. R. Pattie; Koko, W. R. Shackelford; Pooh-bah, A. D. Flora; Pish-tush, J. N. Turner; Yum-Yum, Miss Mary Pattie; Pitti Sing, Mrs. Henry Berry; Peep Bo, Miss Mabel Terrill; Katisha, Miss Marawillie Smith.

The Twentieth Century Vaudeville Company gave a pleasing performance Tuesday night at the Paris Grand. The program began with a laughable comedy farce "Judge Pro Tem," written by W. J. Browner, and well rendered by W. H. Davis, W. J. Browner, Chas. Hukill, George Browner and Elmer Foote. Chas. R. Hill contributed a fine solo and also gave an exhibition of scientific bag-punching. Chas. Hukill did his grotesque Zulu dance in good style, and George McNamara gave a female impersonation and a dance. W. H. Davis, in a dramatic reading, showed great talent of a high order and won a richly deserved curtain call. His acting was very clever indeed. The "Hobo Brummels," von Rabe, Downey, Hukill and Foote rendered a charming musical number, and von Rabe also gave a delightful mandolin solo. George and Will Browner, a good team of comedians, cracked a number of taking jokes which caught the audience. The Wexfords did some excellent tumbling and work on the horizontal bars. The performance closed with a travesty entitled "Calling Out The Militia." Eads Bernard Thornton and von Rabe are the musical directors of the company.

Twenty Years....

For more than twenty years we have been telling how Scott's Emulsion overcomes the excessive waste of the system, puts on flesh, nourishes and builds up the body, making it the remedy for all wasting diseases of adults and children, but it isn't possible for us to tell the story in a mere stickful of newspaper type.

We have had prepared for us by a physician a little book, telling in easy words how and why Scott's Emulsion benefits, and a postal card request will be enough to have it sent to you free. To-day would be a good time to send for it.

Will Not Perform Miracles But It Will Cure.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE cures nervous prostration. Not miraculously, but scientifically, by first removing the germs of disease, and then supplying healthy nerve food, increasing the appetite, helping digestion and strengthening the entire system. Desperate cases require prolonged treatment as shown by that of Mrs. M. B. Reed, of Delta, Iowa, who writes: "As the result of a lightning stroke, the physicians said I had a light stroke of paralysis, my limbs would all draw up. I would have throbbings in my chest that seemed unendurable. For three months I could not sleep and for three weeks did not close my eyes. I prayed for sleep, and felt that if relief did not come I would be dead or insane. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and the second night slept two hours and from that time on my health improved; slowly at first, but steadily and surely. I took in all 40 bottles, and I cannot express how grateful I am, for I am now perfectly well, and have taken no medicine for over four months." Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by druggists on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.
Book on heart and nerves free. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
